OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

New Delhi, the 4th April 1956

No. 13-Pres./56.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Calcutta Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.—Shri Jagadish Chandra Bhowmick, Constable, Burtola Police Station, Calcutta.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On the evening of the 24th October, 1955, a very large number of people congregated in and around the Sarbojanin Durgotsav pandal at Beadon Square to celebrate "Maha Astomi". The crowd had swelled to unprecedented proportions by 11-00 p.m. when a street bull, excited no doubt by the lights and noise and the pressure of the jostling crowd, ran amuck and charged inside the exit gate for women and children. In the panic that ensued, a number of women and children were knocked down. Before, however, the bull could do any substantial damage, Constable Jagadish Chandra Bhowmick, who was on duty at this gate, jumped on to the bull's back, and taking hold of its horns drew its head back until he forced it to come to a stop. In doing this Constable Bhowmick was thrown over the infuriated bull's head and was gored by it. Despite this he again caught hold of its horns and succeeded in diverting the bull away from the crowd. But for his timely and gallant action a number of persons might have been crushed to death or seriously injured.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of, and below, the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
